

SCHOOLS FOR CHANGE 2023-2024

Yellow Brick House Public Education Workshops For High School Students

Workshops can take place either virtually or in-person!

Exploring Relationships

A preliminary overview of what is healthy and what is not in relationships. We discuss the definition and types of violence, power and control, risk factors, and examine real life examples of unhealthy relationships. Students will also learn effective ways to assert their boundaries, acknowledge their own behaviour, and understand how these pieces impact their decisions.

Your Rights and Responsibilities in Relationships

Respect, trust, and communication – Why are these three components important in a healthy relationship? How can we recognize when the three components are lacking in our relationships and how to effectively respond to it? Everyone has a right to feel safe and secure within their relationships. Students will also learn about Enthusiastic Consent and the importance of giving / receiving it.

Genders in the Media

Media is everywhere and it plays a large role in creating gender norms. We take an in-depth look at how the media affects our sense of self, our relationships, and the way we treat others. We aim to engage youth in exploring different perspectives and challenge them to be critical in their response and interpretation of everyday media. Real life stories and media discussed will change to fit the current news and media popularity.

Cyber World and Your Relationships

Why is cyber abuse so prevalent and what makes it different from other types of abuse? Students will gain a better understanding of what cyber abuse is, why it is becoming normalized in our society, and how we can help stop it.
