

Healthy Homes Workshops

Healthy Homes is a public education program providing culturally sensitive presentations for organizations and community groups working with immigrants and newcomers

What is Covered?

- Understanding healthy relationships and identifying abuse
- How to get help and support
- What to do if you suspect abuse
- Promoting safe communities and the benefits of cultural diversity
- Accessing relevant community resources

For any questions and bookings email publiceducation@yellowbrickhouse.org

24 Hour Crisis and Support Line
Text or call toll free: 1-800-263-3247

Workshops Offered:

Understanding Healthy Relationships

This 60-minute workshop is intended for a single audience of adults (Modifications available for younger audiences).

Healthy Homes Series

This 3 session workshop series offers a group of the same participants an in-depth focus on topics from the Understanding Healthy Relationships workshop.