Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health Raises $96,300 in Support of Yellow Brick House

Richmond Hill, February 11, 2026 – Yellow Brick House received a cheque for $96,300 from Shoppers Foundation for Women's Health as part of its annual Giving Shelter Campaign, supporting women and children fleeing domestic violence.

The photo below features Tracey Dell, Shoppers Drug Mart District Manager with a few store staff and managers, acknowledging the leadership and collaboration of local teams who participated in the Giving Shelter Campaign in support of Yellow Brick House.

Last year, 50 Shoppers Drug Mart stores selected Yellow Brick House as their charity of choice. Funds raised through in-store checkout donations will directly support emergency shelter beds, counselling, and a range of critical programs and services that provide both immediate safety and longer-term support for women and children.

"This partnership demonstrates the powerful role local businesses and community members play in ensuring women and children can access life-saving services when they need them most," said Lorris Herenda, CEO of Yellow Brick House.
