Yellow Brick House Receives Ontario Trillium Foundation Funding to Support Staff and Clients

Recognition Event in Richmond Hill

Richmond Hill, March 6, 2026 – Yellow Brick House wishes to acknowledge the Ontario Trillium Foundation for awarding the Resilient Communities Grant in support of a Project Lead Position.

Through this project, Yellow Brick House was able to implement a workplace culture plan that includes but is not limited to successful talent acquisition/talent development/training/system and program enhancements/wellness program focus/staff recognition/health and safety and operational effectiveness.

To sustainably deliver our programs and services, Yellow Brick House must equip our staff/ volunteers with the necessary knowledge/skills for delivering services, and we must address their mental health/well-being needs.

“By offering our staff a sustainable work environment,” states Lorris Herenda, CEO of Yellow Brick House, “we will see a reduction in turnover, increased motivation of staff with a focus on continuous improvement, and an enhancement of our well-being. This will allow us to improve our programming initiatives and community collaboration to better meet our clients' needs.”

“Yellow Brick House provides a place of safety and hope for some of Richmond Hill’s most vulnerable families,” said Daisy Wai, MPP for Richmond Hill. “This investment through the Ontario Trillium Foundation will help address staffing pressures and resilience, ensuring support will be there when our community needs it most.”
